June 2009

Reverend Fathers, Deacons, Religious and Beloved Faithful:

On February 24, 2009, His Grace Archbishop Collins sent you letter about the National Catholic Charismatic Renewal Conference happening in our Archdiocese on June 26, 27, 28 and 29, 2009.

This conference is a great honour and blessing for our Archdiocese, the speakers, the celebrations, the program and the musicians will offer a powerful revival to the faithful of our parishes and our pastoral groups.

The conference begins with the opening Mass on June 26 at 7:00 pm at St. Michael's Cathedral.

On Saturday and Sunday, June 27 and 28, the conference continues at the "Energy Center" at the CNE in Toronto from 8:00 am to 7:00 pm. Archbishop Collins will preside at Mass on Saturday at 11:00 am and Bishop Sam Jacobs will preside on Sunday at 5:00 pm.

I will be present most of the time and preside at the Holy Hour and Benediction on Saturday at 5:40 pm.

Priests and Deacons are invited to vest: Saturday - White and Sunday – Green.

On Monday June 29 the National Charismatic Renewal is offering all the clergy a special morning program and lunch with the guest speakers. This portion of the conference is for clergy only and will be held at Holy Family Church Hall - 1372 King Street West from 9:00 am to 12:00 noon.

As the Archbishop wrote "Your visible presence is a vital sign of hope for the faithful". There is no admission fee for Priests, Deacons and Religious.

I sincerely hope to see you and your faith community there. Please come, and promote it for others to attend.

Fraternally yours in Christ

Most Reverend Richard J. Grecco
Auxiliary Bishop of Toronto
